REVIEW AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Operating Results

Net operating loss after tax attributable to members for the half year ended 31 December 2008 was $4,728,561 (31 December 2007: $5,377,393).

This result included the following significant items:

- exploration costs associated with the Company's Spanish uranium projects of $3,712,310;
- a non-cash expense of $462,780 in relation to the issue of employee options (Refer Note 8(b) and Note 11), including the reversal of $38,788 upon the cancellation of unvested options following cessation of eligible employment.

Review of Operations

During the half year ended 31 December 2008 the Company continued to focus on exploration activities in the Salamanca and Caceres provinces with the objective of adding to the existing 16.9mlb of JORC compliant uranium resources at Retortillo, Santidad and Zona 7.

The Company also reached Agreement with ENUSA Industrias Avanzadas SA, the Spanish State uranium Company, to undertake a Feasibility Study on and ultimately, acquire, that Company's uranium mining assets in Salamanca. Further details of that transaction were included in the Notice of General Meeting sent to shareholders on 19 December 2008.

Exploration – Salamanca

Work to date suggests that Zona 7 consists of an irregular distribution of narrow veins and pods of higher grade mineralization, reflecting the interplay between steeply dipping structures and horizontal weathering. A program of 61 additional RC and diamond holes has significantly extended the mineralization over a total strike length of 1.2km and whilst closed off to the east, the deposit is open to the south-west where some of the best intersections have been recorded. It is possible that Zona 7 will link up with the small Las Carbas deposit 1.5km to the south which was discovered by Berkeley Resources beneath Tertiary cover in 2008.

Interpretation of magnetics and radiometrics indicated the possible extension of the Zona 7 corridor to the south and, following anomalous radiometric probing of a nearby water bore, RC drilling at 200m line spacings has recorded significant intersections including 10m @ 423ppm U_3O_8 and 7m @ 1055ppm U_3O_8 within a mineralised area of 500m x 50-100m.

Drilling campaigns were completed at the historically mined areas at Cristina and Caridad with encouraging results. At Caridad, 44 RC and 2 diamond holes were drilled and identified continuous mineralization over widths of 50-100m. Although host rocks appear similar to Zona 7, mineralization at Caridad appears more influenced by folding and deformation, than by cross-cutting features, with a supergene overprint.

At Cristina a drilling program of 47 RC holes and one diamond hole were drilled to test three target areas, identified by the 2007 airborne survey. The program defined mineralization in two zones in the northern target and in both southern targets.

At the Charcas prospect (to the south of Retortillo), a water bore drilled through thin Tertiary cover immediately south of the Retortillo deposit encountered favourable carbonaceous shale lithologies and anomalous down-hole radiometrics between the quartzite's which define the southern edge of the Retortillo deposit, and nearby granite. This possible repetition of Retortillo host rocks points to an untested area 4km in strike length and 0.5km wide.

Exploration - Caceres

An initial JORC compliant inferred resource of 9.2Mlb U_3O_8 , at an average grade of 371ppm U_3O_8 (at a 200ppm cut-off), has now been calculated for the Gambuta deposit in Caceres.

As at Retortillo, the Gambuta mineralization occurs in continuous, sub-horizontal sheets. It has been defined over an area of about 1,500m by 300m with a central, higher grade (+0.1% U_3O_8) zone, about 100m wide, evident in the north-western half of the deposit. The main horizon (Zone 1) averages 9.4m in thickness but reaches a maximum vertical thickness of 40m. Zone 1 occurs at an average depth of about 18m beneath Tertiary cover and shales, suggesting a low strip ratio during mining.

At the end of the year Berkeley Resources had estimated total JORC compliant uranium resources in Spain of 26.1Mlbs U_3O_8 .

Following a review of the Retortillo geological model by Berkeley Resources and GRD Minproc (Perth), a diamond drilling program was completed, providing representative samples of the Retortillo mineralisation for metallurgical and radiometric testwork. An 800kg sample was shipped to Australia and testwork started early in January 2009.

In view of the ongoing turmoil in global capital markets and its effect on funding for junior resource companies, a review of activities and cost structures was undertaken in late 2008. As a consequence, the Company will undertake a reduced level of drilling activity until completion of the ENUSA transaction, when the Feasibility Study will become the focus of most of the Company's resources.

A review of Berkeley Resources' extensive ground holding position, supported by ground reconnaissance assessment of both conceptual and known target areas, was largely completed with the aim of prioritising future exploration and rationalising holding costs. The results of the study reduced the number of tenements from 71 to 46, and the associated land holding from 456,902ha to 283,575ha.

With the reduced level of exploration activity, the Company also took steps to reduce the workforce in Spain, to a level optimised for the ENUSA Feasibility Study.

Miriam-Bouchers Joint Venture

The Company was informed during the period that Sipa Resources Limited ("Sipa") was withdrawing from its Joint Venture with Berkeley Resources whereby Sipa may have earned up to a 70% interest in the Miriam-Bouchers Project in Coolgardie, Western Australia. Following the withdrawal by Sipa, Berkeley Resources maintains its 100% interest in the project and is currently reviewing this portfolio of tenements.

CORPORATE

The following material corporate events occurred during or since the end of the half year ended 31 December 2008:

- On 16 July 2008, the Company advised that it has been chosen by ENUSA Industrias Avanzadas S.A., the Spanish State uranium Company, as that company's partner to conduct a feasibility study upon and ultimately develop ENUSA's uranium mining assets in Salamanca Province, Spain;
- On 18 July 2008, the Company issued 287,500 Unlisted Options to employees in accordance with the Company's Employee Option Scheme. The options are exercisable for $1.00 each on or before 19 June 2012. Vesting conditions apply. In addition, the Company advised that the Board had agreed to issue 250,000 Unlisted Options on the same terms and conditions to Mr Scott Yelland, Chief Operating Officer and a Director of the Company. These Incentive Options were subject to Shareholder approval at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and were issued on 19 December 2008;
- On 9 December 2008, the Company advised that it had reached agreement with ENUSA, to undertake a Feasibility Study on and ultimately, acquire, that Company's uranium mining assets in Salamanca. The terms of the agreement are available in detail in the announcement to the ASX and the Notice of General Meeting of Shareholders held on 19 January 2009; and
- On 19 January 2009, Shareholders approved the acquisition of the ENUSA assets as initially announced on 9 December 2008.
